Terms and Conditions

1. Students International Limited undertakes to ensure that every effort is made to place students in friendly, reliable host families, where possible with children of a similar age group. Each family will have received a personal visit from the Director or representative.
2. Unless requested otherwise, only students of different mother tongues and nationalities will be placed in the same family.
3. Shoplifting, taking drugs, drinking alcohol (under 18 years of age), or consistent misbehaviour will not be tolerated. Students found to be doing any of these will be immediately dismissed from the course and repatriated at the parents/guardian's expense. Students are subject to English law whilst in England.
4. Any damage incurred by the student to the school or host family property will be invoiced to the student's parents/guardians.
5. Any student becoming ill or sustaining other injuries may be sent home at the discretion of the Director after consultation with the parents/guardians.
6. Participation in the programme as outlined, including lessons, is obligatory.
7. Students International Limited has full public liability insurance but each student is advised to have personal cover for accidents, lost luggage etc.
8. Price quoted are in sterling or local currency equivalent. The latter are subject to price fluctuation up to the date of final payment according to the exchange rates at the time.
9. All fees must be received by date of departure. Payments must be made by the due dates. Cancellation fees will be charged as follows:
 - a. Four to eight weeks prior to the course: 10% of course fee
 - b. Two to four weeks prior to the course: 50% of fee
 - c. Less than two weeks prior to the course: Full fee payable
10. Students are responsible for ensuring that their travel documents and visas (where required) are complete and up-to-date. Students International Limited will help with the paperwork required for visa applications.
11. Any disputes or claims between Students International Limited, the student, or their parents/guardians will be subject to British law through the Leicestershire Courts.
